

EXPERT IN COMPUTER VISION

Company Description

Deneb Medical is a start-up based in San Sebastian focused in the development of a novel surgical CoBot. As part of its strategy Deneb is always looking for brilliant individuals who thrive with new technological challenges and are willing to explore new paths in science, technology and business.

😚 Country: Basque Country 🔐 City: San Sebastian

Company

Deneb Medical

Main functions, requisites & benefits

Main functions

This is an excellent opportunity for an engineer with broad experience in computer vision and machine learning seeking to apply his/her talent and knowledge in the medical industry. The candidate will have a great degree of freedom to put his/her skills into practice in an ambitious project with international reach and excellent future perspectives.

Requisites

- A minimum of 5-year professional experience in artificial intelligence, more specifically in computer vision and machine learning, or other close-related disciplines
- Extensive knowledge of statistics
- Master's degree or PhD in Engineering, Computer Science or Mathematics
- Deep knowledge of Python and/or Matlab/Simulink. C++ is not a must but will be a plus
- Fluent in English

Benefits

Working conditions and benefits weill be explained during the selection process.