

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGER

Company Description

The LKS group is one of the leading reference points in the professional services sector in Spain. It has a staff of around 500 people and an annual turnover of approximately 30 million euros. It forms part of MONDRAGON, the Basque Country's leading business association and the seventh largest in Spain.

Information

Deadline: 2019-12-31
Category: Business

Province: Bizkaja

Company

LKS Selection & Training Management

Main functions, requisites & benefits

Main functions

Working closely with the industrial manager and as a Environmental Manager you will guarantee that all the environmental laws that affect the organization are in order, you will also develop the managment of the Environmental Authorization. You will ensure the creation, implementation and manteinance of the needec processes to gain the ISO 14001:2015, you will represent the company with the providers, clients and/or public administrations with ambiental incidents and will develop the new certifications. You will develop the search for improvement oportunities and innovative solutions, optimizing the environmental resources and operating in plant for the control and analitical tracing of the samples. You will also manage the training sesions for the environmental area.

Requisites

You will have an environmental engineering degree and have specific formation in managing environmental integrated sistems, like the ISO 14001:2015

You will have a minimum experience of 2 years in managing environmental sistems and will talk Euskera and Enghish at a high level.

