Main functions, requisites & benefits

Main functions

We are looking for a permanent, full-time Front End developer to help us build and maintain our cloud and server Atlassian Apps. This position is ideal for someone who enjoys building a great user experience on web applications that can also help define the APIs required to make it all fit together, and is prepared to start a new job in early 2020.

Requisites

Web development experience, with a recent focus in javascript frontend development, CSS and HTML. Up-to-date with technologies relevant to our stack such as Node.js/React and web component approaches. Knowledge of testing tools and approaches for javascript/web applications. You don't have to be a graphic designer, but you should have a good eye for what looks cool. Pushing some pixels comes with the territory in this position. Solid written and verbal English language skills.

Benefits

COLLABORATIVE SPIRIT At the core of Comalatech is a dedication building great online collaboration tools. We don't just create these tools, we use them every day to communicate with our team. COMPETITIVE SALARY We respect the cost of living of our globally distributed team. We pay a competitive salary relevant to your location. PAID TRAINING ASSISTANCE We want team members who are motivated to learn. To that end we will contribute to approved training courses, seminars, and events. A THRIVING CULTURE We might be separated by distance, but we come together remotely to form a group that's a little crazy, a little different, but a lot of fun. ADDITIONAL BENEFITS & VACATION In addition to our competitive salary offerings, we also provide additional health benefits and vacation time commensurate with your education, experience, and geographic location. A DIVERSE TEAM Some organizations talk diversity, but Comalatech lives it. We hire people from a variety of backgrounds in order to augment our already fun and unique culture.
