

Company Description

SENER is an independent engineering & construction firm. Established in 1956, today SENER employs 2,500 people globally. Our mission is to serve our clients and the society by providing advanced, accurate and effective engineering solutions that improve our clients' businesses and facilitate society's access to competitive, safe, sustainable and state-of-the-art services, equipment and utilities. Expanding our presence in Germany, SENER aspires to incorporate people with the greatest talent and vocation, guiding their human and professional development through growing responsibilities and challenges. We believe in our professionals and support their performance, offering an environment with sufficient freedom to motivate individual initiatives that add value to our operations and improve SENER. We trust the best to lead, avoiding any discrimination and demanding not only professional aptitude and results but also exemplary conduct, teamwork, dedication and commitment. At SENER we know that, with the right people on board, everything is possible.

Information

 Deadline: 2020-02-29
 Category: Business
 Province: GERMANY

 Country: Germany
 City: Gelsenkirchen

Company

SENER, INGENIERIA Y SISTEMAS, S.A.

Main functions, requisites & benefits

Main functions

Our project in Düsseldorf/ Gelsenkirchen is seeking a Finance Controller in an EPC project. Job Description: 1. RISK & FORESCAT & PLANNING Identify the key risks for the plant as well as economic criteria in the reported data for the different disciplines involved in the project. Follow-up and control of the forecasts, future and pending, of all the risks linked to the project (in coordination with planning and cost control). 2. REPORTING & CONTROL Coordination with the project technical managers to understand and provide financial and economic assessment regarding the progress of the construction. 3. CONTROL & SUPERVISION: In addition to this, be in charge of all the relevant areas related to the financial function: Cash & Collection supervision. Corporate reporting. Control over taxes and presentations. Financial statements control and supervision. Administrative assistance.

Requisites

Job Requirements: Degree in Business Administration. Proficiency in German and English. Spanish is a plus. 5-8 years' experience in Engineering, Constructions, Oil&Gas, etc Knowledge of the German market (tax, accounting requirements, etc). Additional Information: Tech Skills: Knowledge of German accounting and tax regulations. Other Skills: Ability to communicate effectively with management, coworkers, clients, partners, contractors, etc. Ability to work in a multi-disciplined team. Ability to attend to detail and work in a time-conscious and time-effective manner.

Benefits

Develop a career in Germany in a major project, working in a strategic role in the functions in EPC project. Knowing how a big international company works.