Description

Lookiero is the leading personal shopping service online for women in Europe. We believe style is much more than the clothes we wear. We use style to inspire our clients to express themselves. Our combination of smart technology and experienced personal stylists ensure we find inspiring and constantly surprising styles, tailored to our clients' needs and preferences. We create lasting relationships between our Personal Shoppers and our clients, enabling us to deliver a thoughtful and personalised selection of items chosen specifically for them, every time. We have grown rapidly since our launch in 2016 and are continuing to grow quickly! We now operate in 7 countries with a super talented team of +350 people across our 4 offices in Bilbao (HQ), Paris, London and Milan. The diverse backgrounds, mindsets and ideas of our team helps us uniquely deliver on our business proposition and makes us an energising place to build a career.
