

Company Description

Who we are - IVIX is a Tel-Aviv based fintech startup combating the shadow economy with a fast-growing team and leading investors from the field. What we do - We are developing novel technologies to help governments tackle complex economic problems and to combat the shadow economy.

Information

 Deadline: 2022-01-31
 Category: Business
 Province: Bizkaia

 Country: Basque Country
 City: Bilbao

Company

IVIX

Main functions, requisites & benefits

Main functions

What we are looking for - We are looking for a Research Analyst in Bizkaia who will have the opportunity to establish the Research Methodologies at the Company. Responsibilities: Conduct extensive web research (OSINT/WEBINT) from platforms across the web, social media, and databases. Analyze large amounts of data, conduct and present clear reports, while working with data and analytics software/methodologies. Work with the team to improve and expand our toolset. Assist our product team to understand our customers' needs better by tracking their pains, following industry trends, and communicating their needs. Managing direct interaction with our clients in Spain in regarding our product.

Requisites

Requirements: Spanish, English - Full professional proficiency Basque - Must University degree Ability to act with a high degree of autonomy and to manage multiple tasks/projects and deadlines simultaneously Investigative and analytical problem-solving skills Excellent Excel/Google sheets skills Desirable and a strong advantage: Strong background of WEBINT, OSINT, source verification, data fusion, and intelligence analysis Good knowledge of online data sources (forums, social media, deep web, marketplaces, and more) SQL, Python

Benefits

The opportunity to work at a fast-growing startup. Join an international team of top-performing individuals. Dynamic and interesting work environment. Competitive salary.

