

Company Description

APlanet offers technological solutions for sustainability so that organizations can manage and report their ESG criteria (environmental, social and governance) in an agile and accurate way. Our solutions facilitate the management of non-financial information and CSR initiatives, automating the data collection and aggregation process, throughout the structure of the organization or client portfolio, making it easily shareable with stakeholders. At APlanet our vision is a world in which sustainability is always at the center of decision making.
