

Company Description

We are specialists in the selection of highly qualified technical profiles. Our experience of more than 15 years working in industrial environments allows us to identify HUMAN TALENT. Our success is based on accompanying you, always looking for the perfect match between candidate and organisation.

Information

 Deadline: 2022-05-31
 Category: Business
 Province: Bizkaia

 Country: Basque Country
 City: Durango

Company

IDDTEK

Main functions, requisites & benefits*Main functions

Cross-site project purchasing of electronic components for printed circuit boards within the Sensors and Actuators division. Execution of procurement activities from the quotation phase until start of production in our plant. Commercial evaluation of electronic bill of materials to generate customer quotation and appropriate cost down activities and product roadmaps. Selection of development suppliers and sample procurement during the product development phase. Support of the component selection by creating market benchmarks. Coordination of the serial supplier nomination within the projects.

Requisites

Technical or Superior Engineer in Industrial Electronics, Telecommunications or related degrees. Several years of professional experience as buyer for electronic components. Professional experience in international purchasing of electronic components or printed circuit boards e.g. for an automotive tier1 Good written and spoken English, another foreign language is desirable. Cost and quality awareness, high degree of flexibility and assertiveness, team player with a high level of goal orientation.

Benefits

Immediate and stable incorporation into our client's team. Remuneration in accordance with the experience provided.

