

Company Description

Bcare Minding Batteries. Bcare provides integral solutions to the companies of all the sector's value chain. The optimisation of energy storage systems is the great challenge of the future that must be faced from manufacturers to end users. At Bcare, integral support services company, we work to achieve that challenge. We do it by providing innovative solutions for batteries and capacit

Information

Deadline: 2022-06-30
Category: Business
Province: Araba / Álava

Country: Spain
City: VITORIA-GASTEIZ

Company

Bcare

Main functions, requisites & benefits

Main functions

Bcare, an integral service company for the global market of energy storage is looking for a person to join as Project Manager for: technical consultancy on storage systems (screening of technologies, search for suppliers, analysis of regulations, technical specifications, ...), battery analysis, testing and diagnosis projects (electrochemical characterisation, ageing, post-mortem analysis, etc.). R&D and European projects related to storage systems Main functions: Customer relationship Drafting of technical and economic offers Project development and management Relationship with laboratories Technical and economic control

Requisites

Requirements: Chemical engineering or degree in chemistry, PhD desirable (other degrees may be considered depending on experience). Knowledge of batteries in their different technologies Knowledge of SoX estimation algorithms Experience in battery ageing and characterisation testing English level C1 Knowledge of Matlab will be highly valued Skills: Project management Teamwork Autonomy Flexibility

Benefits

WHAT WE OFFER: Joining a young and dynamic company Time flexibility Salary to be agreed according to experience Close collaboration with one of Europe's leading Energy Storage research centres (CIC energiGUNE) Great possibilities for professional growth and development

