

Company Description

DigiPen Bilbao is an academic institution located in Bilbao, Spain that specializes in technology and digital media education. The school offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs in fields such as computer science, game design, digital art and animation, and sound design. With a focus on hands-on learning and project-based coursework, DigiPen Bilbao aims to prepare students for careers in the digital entertainment and technology industries. The school also hosts various research projects and collaborates with industry partners to foster innovation and growth in these fields.

Information

 Deadline: 2023-06-30
 Category: Business
 Province: Bizkaia

 Country: Basque Country
 City: Bilbao

Company

DigiPen Bilbao

Main functions, requisites & benefits

Main functions

To develop and deliver engaging course materials and lectures. To evaluate student performance and provide feedback. To mentor and guide students in their academic and professional growth. To collaborate with fellow faculty members to improve curriculum. To participate in research projects, conferences, and workshops.

Requisites

PhD in Computer Science or related field. 4+ years of work experience in software industry or research. Passion for education and inspiring students. Valued Skills: C++ programming expertise. Knowledge of Computational Geometry. Familiarity with Software Engineering methodologies. Proficiency in Computer Graphics.

Benefits

Competitive Salary commensurate to experience/skills. Flexible hours with possibility to work remote some days of the week. Academic schedule with vacation days in Christmas, Easter and full month of August. A good working environment within a group of like-minded individuals.

